BOXING.

J. P. Egan, of New York, advance agent for Champion Jim Jeffries, was in Wheeling yesterday completing arrangements for the champion's exhibition at the Metropolitan club, next Friday evening. Mr. Egan says Jeffries will surely be here, and that Jeffries comes largely on Oscar Gardner's account. It is of interest also to learn that Cincinnati was after the Wheeling that Cincinnati was after the Wheeling date, but was too late in making connections, so the show will likely have to skip Cincinnati. Jeffries is on his way to San Francisco and will give a few exhibitions at Chicago and other western cities en route, and Wheeling is fortunate in securing him.

In the combination are the champion's sparring partners, trainers, etc. Billy Delaney, Jim Daly, Ross O'Nelli and Tommy Ryan, the greatest welter-weight living. Friday hight Jeffries will spar six rounds, taking the bunch on one at a time for each round, although Ryan, who is preparing for his match with "Mysterious" Billy Smith, may not go on with the big fellow, for it is rather risky clashing with the giant.

It is rather risky classing with the giant.

Jeffries will illustrate the various punches and the knock-out blow used on Fitzsimmons, and the exhibition will be worth going miles to see. His manager, William A. Brady, left yesterday for England to make arrangements for the match with Charley Mitchell. Jeffries expects to finish the Englishman in short order. Mr. Engan said that Jeffries was very confident of defeating Sharkey again when they meet in the fall. Jeffries is to go on the road after this light, starring in the play entitled, "The Rough Rider," written for him.

The Metropolitan club will hold a boxing carnival next week, to accommodate the sport-loving visitors to the Elks' fair. On Tuestay evening Jack Bennett, of McKeesport, Pa., and Matty Matthews, of New York, will meet in a context scheduled to go twenty rounds. The club has secured a good ten-round preliminary for the bout. "Buzz" Auber and George Church, of, Ruffalo, N. Y., bantams, form the card, and this event would be a main attraction in some cities, On Thursday night, Dick O'Brien, of Staten Island, and Harry Fisher; of Brooklyn, heavyweights, will mix it up and the preliminary will likely bring together. Chippy Chapling and George Carle for ten rounds. The Metropolitan club will hold i

Resolved, That each council send to Friend F. H.; Crago a complete list of its membership, showing the business or profession of each, which shall be incorporated in a neat folder and distributed among the membership throughout the state. The expense of said publication shall be done by the councils of the state.

The business of the assembly being to cleet a senator for the ensuing term. B. F. Meighen, B. H. Thackston and J. W. Leach, were placed in nonination. After a very spirited contest, B. F. Meighen was elected on the twelfth ballot, receiving six votes to Thomas C. Miller's four, the latter having been voted for after others had withdrawn. The following executive committee was appointed to serve for two years: F. H. Crago, J. E. Chamberlain, Guy R. C. Allen, T. C. Pipes and John I. Harvey. After adjournment the executive committee organized by electing J. E. Chamberlain, chairman, and F. H. Crago, secretary.

The members of the assembly under the guidance of J. W. Leach, inspected the Riverside works.

The mational union is a distinctively American fraternal beneficial society, It has a membership of 50,000, and is eighteen years old. Its growth has been slow but sure, and it numbers among its members the cry best men of the communities where councils are located. There are two councils in Wheeling, with a membership of nearly 200.

PROF. BIRCH RESIGNS

From the Principalship of Linsly Institute of Wheeling.

At a meeting of the board of trusday night, the resignation of Prof. John M. Birch, who has been principal of the school since 1875, with the exception of a term of service as superintendent of the Wheeling schools and four years as United States consul at Nagasaki, Japan, was accepted, though the trustees were disinclined to take such action. Professor Birch retires from Linsly to assume business rela-tions that he has had in contemplation for several months.

The trustees elected Lieutenant B. C. Dent, U. S. N., to the office vacated by Prof. Birch's resignation, and that he will maintain the very high Linsly standard is well assured. He will have the co-operation of other capable edu-cators, including Prof. Leo. R. Brilles, Lieutenant Dent will open the school in Ideutenant Dent will open the school in September, with a millitary camp of one week's duration out Wheeling creek, an innovation that has been received with enthusiastic approximation by parents and scholars allke.

Although Prof. Birch's new work will call him from Wheeling much of his time, he will continue to reside here. He left hast night for St. Louis on a business mission. While his friends regret that he leaves the educational field they are read to hear that he he he field, they are glad to learn that he enters a profitable business.

A TERRIFIC STORM

Last Night in Which Heavy Rain and

Hail Were the Features, Last night, shortly after 8 o'clock, there was a remarkable hall storm in this vicinity. The hall-stones were as large as walnuts and came down thick large as walnuts and came down thick and fast, striking the streets with a report like that of a pistol. Horses were frightened and there were many narrow escapes from runaways. Fol-lowing the hall storm came the hardest rain of the season. It didn't last long but it counted in the rain guage for keeps, being over an inch.

BAD management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look shead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and carciul man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer.
